White Sands FCU promotes two employees

Las Cruces, NM – White Sands Federal Credit Union announces the promotion of Phillip Fifield and Frank Gutierrez. Fifield was promoted to the position of Executive Vice President and Gutierrez was promoted to the position of Assistant Vice President.

Fifield has been employed at White Sands FCU for 19 years, having begun his tenure as a loan officer. He also held the positions of branch manager and vice president of operations. Fifield holds a Bachelor of Science in business from the University of Phoenix. He is responsible for branch operations in Texas and New Mexico.

Gutierrez began his White Sands FCU career five years ago as a member service representative. He also held the position of branch manager. Gutierrez holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from New Mexico State University. He is currently managing the credit union's branch at 2190 E. Lohman in Las Cruces.

White Sands FCU congratulates these two outstanding individuals on their promotion and successful careers.

White Sands Federal Credit Union is a member-owned, not for profit financial cooperative committed to the financial well-being of its members.
